2. The Debtors have requested that the Firm provide tax compliance, tax advisory services (including expatriate tax services) and employee global assignment services outsourcing to the Debtors, and the Firm has consented to provide such services pursuant to two engagement letters between the Debtors and the Firm.

3. The Firm may have performed services in the past and may perform services in the future, in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases, for persons that are parties-in-interest in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

4. As part of its customary practice, the Firm is retained in cases, proceedings and transactions involving many different parties, some of whom may represent or be employed by the Debtors, claimants and parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases. The Firm does not perform services for any such person in connection with these chapter 11 cases, or have any relationship with any such person, their attorneys or accountants that would be adverse to the Debtors or their estates.

5. Neither I nor any principal of or professional employed by the Firm has agreed to share or will share any portion of the compensation to be received from the Debtors with any other person other than the principals and regular employees of the Firm.

6. Neither I nor any principal of or professional employed by the Firm, insofar as I have been able to ascertain, holds or represents any interest adverse to the Debtors or their estates.

7. During these bankruptcy cases, prior to the date hereof, the Firm has provided approximately $75,000 of tax compliance and advisory services to various non-debtor foreign affiliates of the Debtors, and invoiced such non-debtor foreign affiliates of the Debtors for such services. Subsequently, the Firm discovered that approximately $50,000 of such invoices were paid to the Firm by the Debtors. The Debtors do not owe the Firm for any prepetition services.

8. The Firm is conducting further inquiries regarding its retention by any creditors of the Debtors, and upon conclusion of that inquiry, or at any time during the period of its employment, if the Firm should discover any facts bearing on the matters described herein, the Firm will supplement the information contained in this Affidavit.

Executed on March 5, 2003.
